Things to do in Constanta 1

Old city center - walking distance

- Ovid Square (Piata Ovidiu) <https://g.page/PiataOvidiu?share>

Constanta - Publius Ovidius Constanta's best known square (and meeting place) honors the first Roman major poet, Ovid (Publius Ovidius Naso). Roman Emperor Augustus exiled Ovid to Tomis in year 8 AD. Ovid's bronze stature, designed by Italian sculptor Ettore Ferrari in 1887 adorns the square named after him. An exact replica of the statue can be found in the town of Sulmona (Italy), the birth place of the poet.

- The Roman Mosaics (Edificiul Roman cu Mozaic) <https://goo.gl/maps/SexhnrK6DRuid9tVA>

A vast complex on three levels once linked the upper town to the harbor. Today, only about a third of the original edifice remains, including more than 9,150 sq ft of colorful mosaics. Built toward the end of the 4th century AD and developed over the centuries, it was the city's commercial centre until the 7th century. Archeological vestiges point to the existence of workshops, warehouses and shops in the area. Remains of the Roman public baths can still be seen nearby. Aqueducts brought water six miles to the town.

- The Genoese Lighthouse (Farul Genovez) <https://goo.gl/maps/ZGBBbydRBKv7nmZd8>

Soaring 26 feet, this lighthouse was built in 1860 by the Danubius and Black Sea Company to honor Genoese merchants who established a flourishing sea trade community here in the 13th century.

- Constanta Casino (Cazinoul Constanta) <https://g.page/CazinoConstanta?share>

During the 1914 visit to Romania of the Russian Imperial Family, the casino was host to a royal gala. Despite the intended arrangement, Grand Duchess Olga refused the proposed marriage to Prince Carol II of Romania and the Russians sailed away. The Grand Duchess was later killed by the Bolsheviks along with the rest of her family. Completed in 1910, according to the plans of architects, Daniel Renard and Petre Antonescu, Constanta Casino is a stunning art nouveau structure, with Art-Deco accents, perched on a cliffside overlooking the Black Sea. The pedestrian area around the Casino is the city's most popular promenade. The casino is currently under restoration works.

- Tomis Turistic Port <https://goo.gl/maps/u2bozUNWW6aYxUqy5>

The touristic port is one of the famous locations of Constanta for both tourists and locals. Regardless of the season, the Tomis port area is the choice made by those who want to admire the sea, either by car or by a leisurely walk. Access to the port is very easy through a street that descends to the "edge" of the bay, right in the area where luxury yachts and sailing boats "rest". On the waterfront there are numerous terraces and chic restaurants that serve fish dishes.

- The House "with Lions" (Casa cu Lei) <https://goo.gl/maps/rUurwoNC96q9hwQa6>

Blending pre-Romantic and Genoese architectural styles, this late 19th century building features four columns adorned with imposing sculptured lions. During the 1930s, its elegant salons hosted the Constanta Masonic Lodge.

- Constanta Archaeology Park (Parcul Arheologic) <https://goo.gl/maps/qGBR6Z4PtphGy5mq8>

The park houses columns and fragments of 3rd and 4th century buildings and a 6th century tower.

- St. Peter & Paul Orthodox Cathedral (Catedrala Sf. Apostol Petru si Pavel)

<https://goo.gl/maps/n7UKx5yba26AFnDA8>

Constructed in Greco-Roman style between 1883 and 1885, the church was severely damaged during WWII and was restored in 1951. The interior murals display a neo-Byzantine style combined with Romanian elements best observed in the iconostasis and pews, chandeliers and candlesticks (bronze and brass alloy), all designed by Ion Mincu and completed in Paris.

- The Great Mahmudiye Mosque (Moscheea Mare Mahmoud II) <https://goo.gl/maps/A4WEFYA8FVQZ9SQ36>

Built in 1910 by King Carol I, the mosque is the seat of the Mufti, the spiritual leader of the 55,000 Muslims (Turks and Tatars by origin) who live along the coast of the Dobrogea region. The building combines Byzantine and Romanian architectural elements, making it one of the most distinctive mosques in the area. The centerpiece of the interior is a large Persian carpet, a gift from Sultan Abdul Hamid. Woven at the Hereche Handicraft Centre in Turkey, it is one of the largest carpets in Europe, weighing 1,080 pounds. The main attraction of the mosque is the 164-ft minaret (tower) which offers a stunning view of the old downtown and harbor. Five times a day, the muezzin climbs 140 steps to the top of the minaret to call the faithful to prayer.

- The Hunchiar Mosque (Geamia Hunchiar) <https://goo.gl/maps/WmENq4krdh4SIFyEA>

This mosque was the first reinforced concrete building in Romania. In time, the steel-concrete rusted; restoration of the tower and cupola was completed in 1959.

Built in 1867 - 1868 by order of Sultan Abdul Azis, the mosque was constructed of sandstone taken from an Ottoman bridge which had been destroyed in 1828. Its architecture reflects Moorish style and the interior still preserves original Oriental ornaments.

- St. Anthony Roman-Catholic Church (Biserica Romano-Catolica Sf. Anton) <https://goo.gl/maps/LjirdmSFa3AkGfos8>

Dating from 1937, this church was built after architect Romano de Simon's plans. The structure is shaped like a Roman basilica, specific to the northern part of Italy. The buttress and geometrical motifs are reminiscent of the 13th century Romanic style.

- Constanta Art Museum (Muzeul de Arta Constanta) <https://goo.gl/maps/d3MbPXesq5GRglw87>

Established in 1961, the Art Museum exhibits more than 7,300 Romanian contemporary art masterpieces - paintings, sculptures, ceramics, china, upholstery and furniture. A century of Romanian art is on display, ranging from the works of Theodor Aman and Nicolae Grigorescu to those of Ion Jalea and Corneliu Baba. Here, you will have the opportunity to view the Black Sea and Constanta through the eyes of the artists who portrayed them.

- Folk Art Museum (Muzeul de Arta Populara) <https://goo.gl/maps/d3ZGStVd78v4Q2hW9>

Some 16,000 exhibits from all ethnographic regions of Romania are on display here. Folk costumes, jewelry, interiors of traditional peasant homes and household items illustrate the traditional way of life in various parts of the country. On the ground floor, a valuable collection of icons painted on glass dates from the 18th and 19th centuries. Folk arts and crafts are available at the museum gift shop.

- Ion Jalea Museum (Muzeul Ion Jalea) <https://goo.gl/maps/DBQgB5tSpMXUHLxz5>

- Romanian Navy Museum (Muzeul Marinei Romane) <https://goo.gl/maps/r2MX8HEMHemLppWB7>

Organized chronologically in four sections, the museum features charts, moldings, ancient and modern boat models, navigation instruments, documents and photographs. The open-air exhibition, displaying life-size anchors, propellers, engines, surface and anti-aircraft gun mounts, offers a wonderful panorama of the Constanta harbor.

- The Aquarium (Acvariul) <https://goo.gl/maps/caYwgPWdhtkLaz5v6>

Opened in 1958, the Constanta Aquarium is home to over 60 species of fish from the Black Sea, the Danube Delta and lakes Siutghiol, Tasaul, Corbu, Sinoe, Golovita and Razim, located just north of Constanta. The most significant is the collection of sturgeons, one of the largest in the world.

- Mamaia <https://goo.gl/maps/mJjHZQXR3kkHiejg9>

A favorite weekend get-away for locals, Mamaia is one of the most sought-after resorts on the Black Sea coast. A narrow stretch of fine-sand beach between the Black Sea and Lake Siutghiol ("Lake of Milk" in Turkish), Mamaia boasts numerous hotels, a casino, sporting facilities (water sports, biking, tennis, beach games), and hip nightclubs and restaurants located within 100 feet of the sea. Constanta city

Constanta lies on the western coast of the Black Sea, 185 miles north of Istanbul and Bosphorus Strait (Turkey) and 99 miles north of Varna (Bulgaria).

An ancient metropolis, Romania's oldest continuously inhabited and the country's largest sea port, Constanta traces its history some 2,500 years. Originally called Tomis, legend has it that Constanta was visited by Jason and the Argonauts after finding the Golden Fleece.

Founded by Greek colonists from Miletos in the 6th century BC, Tomis was conquered by the Romans in 71 BC and renamed Constantiana by Roman Emperor Constantine the Great in honor of his sister.

Constanta flourished during the 13th century, when Genoese merchants dominated the Black Sea but, the city began to decline two centuries later, when it fell under Turkish rule. During the Ottoman era its name was shortened to Constanta.

Fine mansions and hotels were built in the 19th century when King Carol I decided to revive Constanta as a port and seaside resort.
